Marketing Coordinator

Cristina Bengochea has been a dedicated Executive Assistant at the firm for two years, where she expertly manages complex schedules, marketing initiatives, and podcast operations. With over a decade of administrative experience, Cristina has become a trusted point of contact, seamlessly coordinating between departments and ensuring that every task is handled with precision. Her calm demeanor and proactive approach make her an invaluable asset to the team.

Outside of work, Cristina enjoys spending quality time with her family and is especially fond of quiet evenings with her chihuahua, where she unwinds and recharges for the next day’s challenges. Her love for animals and close-knit family ties reflect her warm and compassionate nature.
