Jorge L. Miranda, Jr. has been a paralegal since 2007 and joined the Bast Amron team in May of 2011. Jorge's expertise involves assisting attorneys from all angles of chapter 7 bankruptcies which include debtor, creditor, and Trustee work. He also has vast experience within all forms of bankruptcy litigation including, but not limited to, adversaries. Jorge graduated from an American Bar Association-approved paralegal program in 2012 and also received his associate's degree during that time from Miami-Dade Community College. He is fluent in Spanish.

Jorge is a classically trained tenor, an avid golfer, and most importantly a husband and father of two.
