Kyle Brandon Forges is an associate at Bast Amron LLP, where he focuses his practice on commercial and insolvency litigation. Kyle brings trial experience and a strong advocacy background to the firm, having previously served as an Assistant Public Defender in Miami-Dade County, where he represented over 150 clients and secured multiple jury acquittals. He has experience managing cases from inception through trial, including drafting pleadings and motions, conducting discovery, arguing in court, and participating in mediations and settlements.

Prior to joining Bast Amron, Kyle was an associate at a full-service litigation firm in Boca Raton, where he handled a wide range of civil litigation matters. He also served as a Certified Legal Intern in Broward County and worked as a Summer Associate at Carey Rodriguez Milian, LLP, where he assisted in international arbitration matters involving complex commercial disputes.

Kyle earned his J.D. from the University of Florida Levin College of Law, where he was inducted into the Order of Barristers and served as Executive Student Works Editor for the Florida Journal of International Law. He also held leadership roles on the Florida Moot Court Team and presented oral arguments before the Florida Supreme Court. He earned his B.A. from Florida Atlantic University and holds an Associate of Arts from Miami Dade College.
