Laura Gancedo is the Firm Administrator at Bast Amron, where she has dedicated over 15 years to supporting the firm’s operations with a strong focus on financial management. With her extensive experience and commitment, Laura has become an integral part of Bast Amron, ensuring smooth financial practices and overall firm efficiency.

Before joining Bast Amron, Laura worked as a paralegal in the bankruptcy sector at a prominent law firm in Miami. Prior to that, she gained valuable financial expertise at one of the top accounting firms in Miami, further strengthening her foundation in financial management.

Outside of work, Laura enjoys reading, the beach, traveling and spending time with friends and family.
