

BAST AMRON is a boutique law firm focused on business insolvency and litigation. Our insolvency practice emphasizes workouts, restructurings, liquidations, bankruptcy, and bankruptcy avoidance. We represent debtors, creditors, committees, trustees, and other fiduciaries in bankruptcies, receiverships, and assignments for the benefit of creditors. Our litigation practice is primarily plaintiff-oriented. We know how to investigate, formulate, and prosecute claims arising from business disputes. By combining our business insolvency knowledge with our extensive courtroom experience, we successfully guide our clients through all aspects and types of commercial litigation in state and federal courts across the country. Whether the issue is litigation or insolvency or both, we view our clients' needs through a holistic lens to formulate and implement dynamic solutions to their most important challenges.

Litigation.

When businesses are unable to resolve their differences, litigation may be the answer. Our litigation teams guide our clients through virtually every aspect of a commercial dispute.

View More

Insolvency.

When our clients are unable to pay their debts as they come due, or when they are dealing with another business in that situation, our insolvency teams are equipped to protect our client's interests and help maximize their recovery and minimize the impact of the insolvency.

View More