

Bast Amron represents individuals and corporations finding themselves having to answer to state and federal officials in criminal proceedings. Often these proceedings begin with a subpoena or request for information. Our firm has a team of former prosecutors and experienced defense counsel to handle all state and federal criminal proceedings from the initial contact by the government, through trial. Our lawyers have handled every type of state and federal criminal proceeding from misdemeanors and felonies in state court, to mail fraud, wire fraud, health care fraud, RICO prosecutions, and all white-collar investigations and prosecutions.
